

Commissioners,

Regarding all petitions, I would like to see the code requirement dropped at least through the General License. Let operators who wish to pursue code skills do so and give the bands in which to operate. I believe the proper policy decision by you will rejuvenate an interest amateur radio. This will benefit the populace at large (more operators, public service etc) and be an economic boost (equipment and peripheral material) for business.

Sincerely,
Craig Mundt